

IN THE CIRCUIT COURT IN AND FOR ESCAMBIA COUNTY, FLORIDA
FAMILY LAW DIVISION
ADMINISTRATIVE DIRECTIVE ECFLAD 1994-01

IN RE: MEDICAL TREATMENT FOR JUVENILES IN ESCAMBIA REGIONAL DETENTION CENTER

WHEREAS, recent changes in statutory law necessitates change in the language of Administrative Order 1989-02 entered by the Honorable John P. Kuder on March 8, 1989, in his capacity as Administrative Judge of the Juvenile Division of the Circuit Court for Escambia County, Florida; and

WHEREAS, this Order is necessary to authorize ordinary and necessary medical and dental examination and treatment for juveniles detained at the Escambia Regional Detention Center if there is no parent, guardian, or other person standing in loco parentis to a child, it is therefore

ORDERED AND ADJUDGED:

1. EFFECTIVE DATE: This order is effective immediately.

2. AUTHORIZATION: This order constitutes authority for a physician, dentist, hospital, or other health care facility to provide ordinary and necessary medical or dental treatment for juveniles detained at the Escambia Regional Detention Center. "Ordinary and necessary medical or dental treatment" includes physical examination, and when necessary, appropriately ordered diagnostic studies, medication and other treatments in accordance with the established Escambia Regional Detention Center protocol subject to review by an HRS-Escambia County Public Health Unit physician. This Order does not authorize surgery, general anesthesia, provision of psychotropic medications, or other extraordinary medical or dental procedures.

DONE AND ORDERED at Pensacola, Escambia County, Florida, this 21st day of January, 1994.
