

FIRST JUDICIAL CIRCUIT
COURT APPOINTED
ATTORNEY APPLICATION
FISCAL YEAR 2022-2023
July 1, 2022 through June 30, 2023

To be included on the First Judicial Circuit Court Appointed Attorney Registry, an attorney must complete and submit the Court Appointed Attorney Application form to the Chief Judge. If you are currently an active attorney on the First Judicial Circuit's Restricted Attorney Registry or the General Attorney Registry you are required to complete a new Court Appointed Attorney Application form each new contract year.

The Chief Judge reserves the right to approve or remove any attorney from the General or Restricted Registry.

➤ RESTRICTED REGISTRY:

In addition to the General Registry, the First Judicial Circuit will have a "Restricted Registry" of attorneys established by the Chief Judge. The restricted registry will be a listing of attorneys assigned to serve specific divisions in the following three areas of practice: Criminal (with the exception of Death and misdemeanors), Juvenile Delinquency, and Dependency & TPR divisions in each county within the First Judicial Circuit. Selections of the attorneys to serve on the Restricted Registries will be made by the Chief Judge in consultation with each Administrative Judge and the affected division judges. In qualifying cases where a conflict appointment becomes necessary, the court will appoint attorneys from the Restricted Registry unless and until it is determined no attorneys on the Restricted Registry are available for appointment. At that time, the court will appoint an attorney from the General Registry.

➤ GENERAL REGISTRY:

The general registry is an alpha-rotating list of attorneys who are available for appointment in the following types of cases: Criminal, Delinquency, Post-Conviction, Capital and Criminal Appeals, Dependency and Termination of Parental Rights (TPR), Appeals of Dependency and TPR Cases, Guardianship, and Baker/Marchman Act cases.

The restricted registry is a list of attorneys assigned to serve specific divisions in the following three areas of practice: criminal (with the exception of death penalty cases and misdemeanors), juvenile delinquency, and dependency/TPR cases. Selection to serve on the restricted registries will be made by the Chief Judge in consultation with each administrative judge and the affected division judges. In qualifying cases, where a conflict appointment becomes necessary, the court will appoint attorneys from the restricted registry unless and until it is determined that no attorneys on the restricted registry are available. At that time, the court will appoint an attorney from the general registry.
